

New York Stock Market

MANY FEATURES IMPART FIRMNESS TO MARKET

Government's Suit to Be Brought Against New Haven Is De-pressing Influence.

STILL WAITING RATE DECISION Unusual Delay Believed to Be Due to Commissioners Arriving at Con-sultation That Greater Advance Than Decided On Is Desirable.

By BRODAN WALL. New York, July 22.—An implicit feeling that the world had been seen, so far as the stock market is concerned, and that the New Haven and Rock Island situation are things of the past imparted firmness to the market and industrial shares.

London sent over a fractionally lower range of prices for American shares, but the market was not so much affected as the London market as the prices quoted were more in line with the prices of the American market.

The continuation of the rate decision of the Federal Reserve Board, which was expected to be made today, has been a source of concern to investors.

Rock Island securities have been under heavy pressure since the announcement of the proposed reorganization of the Rock Island system.

BLOODHOUNDS TO BE NEGRO AFTER FATAL SHOOTING. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] This city, Va., July 22.—In a row over a woman, who gave her name as Jane Bullock, Will Davis shot and probably fatally wounded Mat Bacon this afternoon about 2 o'clock. After firing four shots, one in the breast and three in the leg, Davis tried to escape.

It Never Costs More and often costs less, to have an estate administered by us and thus secure the many advantages of this strong Company over the individual executor or trustee.

His Eyes grew larger when we told a married man the other day, who has no children, that his wife would not get all his property if he should die without a will.

Not one man in fifty knows how property descends under the laws of Virginia, but they ought to know.

We have condensed these laws into simple form that a child can understand.
